Local History Interview Questionnaire

You can be a part of history. Do you have a story to tell? The Village of North Palm Beach is interested in hearing from current and former full-time or part-time residents of North Palm Beach who wish to share their stories about our community. Any information you provide will be added to the archives for reference, so that we may preserve these memories of our Village for future generations.

These interview questions serve as a general guide to the type of information we request; however, you may choose which questions you wish to answer. Additionally, please feel free to contact the Village Historian by phone, email, or in person to share your memories or set up an interview.
